1. A German police school was housed in the quartering buildings of the former BURG (M 53/Y 87) airfield. It was rumored in BURG that the training of an air force police was to be started there.

Early October 1949

2. The kasernes of the BURG airfield were occupied by a police school which, according to local residents, was to be improved as an air force police school. Bomb craters were allegedly being filled and the destroyed buildings were being stripped.

Comment:

It is known from previous reports that the former airfield kasernes were occupied by a police school.

b. The information that bomb craters are being filled and the field reconditioned is received for the first time and is doubted. According to previous reports, the field has been under cultivation. The statements on the alleged pilot training of the police units stationed in BURG are believed to be rumors. All such press reports have proved to be wrong.
